Chapter III

General Transfers and Postings

11. General transfers.- (1) Shifting of forest officers and other officials who have completed the prescribed tenure in a post or place to another post or place during the notified period of the year in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the Act and these Rules shall be considered as general transfers.

(2) General transfers may include contingent transfers due in the same time period.

12. Annual calendar for general transfers and postings.- General transfers and postings shall be done annually by the Competent Authorities as per the calendar prescribed in Appendix – IV the state Government may relax or modify the calendar in any given year to meet the exigencies; and

13. Scale of general transfers.- (1) Total number of transfers to be done collectively by all the Competent Authorities in the state shall not exceed ten percent actual working strength in the cadre with the tenure prescribed for that cadre. However, this limit shall not be applicable during the first three years of operation of the Act and Rules.

(2) The Apex Authority shall decide optimal number of general transfers to be done in each cadre during the year keeping in mind the number of requests received and the administrative exigencies of the department. The numbers so decided shall be distributed across different Competent Authorities and notified on the website. All the Authorities shall adhere to the number specified for them. The website itself shall automatically lock once the upper limit is reached.

(3) The number once decided shall be final and shall not be altered during that general transfer season.

(4) For the purpose of count, each forest officer or other official posted or appointed to a new post shall be counted as one.

(5) A detailed account of general transfers and contingent transfers done shall be maintained separately for the purpose of keeping the count.

14. Identification and listing of available posts and critical posts.- (1) The Apex Authority shall appoint members to various Counseling Authorities based on the prevailing seniority in their respective jurisdictions.

(2) Divisional Authorities shall identify and list vacant posts, available posts and critical posts among them in their jurisdictions and report to Circle Authorities.

(3) Circle Authorities shall review divisional lists, add information pertaining to Circle Office, rationalize the number and report to the State Authority.

(4) State Authority shall consolidate the list, add the numbers relevant to head office and other wings in Bengaluru and report to the Apex Authority.

15. Notification of annual general transfers and postings.- The Apex Authority shall issue a notification for the annual general transfers and postings and invite applications. Brief notification shall be issued in hard copy which shall be posted on the notice boards of all the forest offices in the state. Detailed notification shall be posted on the website. The notification shall inter alia include:

- (i) list of available posts, vacant posts and the critical ones among them;
- (ii) calendar for the general transfers and postings for the year;
- (iii) application form in which to apply;
- (iv) place, last date and closing hours for filing the applications; and
- (v) any changes made to the existing procedure for counseling.

16. Procedure for submitting applications for general transfer.- (1) Officers and officials working in the posts listed in the general transfers notification and those seeking contingent transfers and/or postings during the general transfer time are entitled to apply.

(2) Applications shall be submitted online. Controlling officers shall review the information submitted, add the required information and sign them digitally.

(3) New recruits and others who are joining the department for the first time shall file applications in the office of the Appointing Authority.

(4) Applications once filed shall not be withdrawn. If no transfer or posting is given, they shall remain valid till and considered in the next general transfers. If the applicant is successful in getting a posting, the application shall be archived.

(5) Applications from ineligible forest officers and other officials shall not be entertained at any level. If filed, they shall be rejected outright.

17. Preparing priority list, notifying the dates and counseling.- (1) The order of priority for considering the requests during general transfers time shall be as follows:

(i) those who are eligible for transfer;

(ii) those who have completed ten years of service at the commencement of the Act and Rules but not served in category A posts;

(iii) those who have completed the prescribed tenure in the present post; and

(iv) those who are eligible for contingent transfers or postings as per rule 23.

(2) Applications received from each cadre shall be sorted into the above categories.

(3) Finally, they shall be sorted based on the Competent Authorities who are required to counsel the applicants.

(4) If there are too many applications and if it is not possible to consider all of them the Apex Authority may, rationalize the number by removing avoidable transfer applications from each group or deferring them for consideration later.

(5) Distribution of applications among different levels of Competent Authorities and different Circles and Divisions shall be fair and proportionate to the total cadre strength. Applications finally retained for counseling shall be the priority list.

(6) The priority list so prepared shall be notified on the website by the Apex Authority indicating the names of the applicants, date, time and name of the counseling authority. Office of the Chairperson of the respective Competent Authorities shall be the venue for counseling.

(7) Controlling officers must communicate the counseling schedule to the forest officers or other officials working under their administrative control in remote areas and permit them to attend the counseling session.

(8) Counseling for general transfers and postings shall be done cadre-wise by the respective Competent Authorities at the office of the Chairperson.

18. Concluding the counseling process for general transfers.-

(1) Total number of transfers and postings

actually done can be less but shall not exceed the number determined by the Apex Authority.

(2) Each Competent Authority shall prepare a summary report and submit to the Apex Authority within three days.

19. Disposal of pending applications.- (1) Applications which could not be considered by any of the Competent Authorities during general transfers shall be deemed to be pending.

(2) A list of such pending applications shall be maintained on the website for reference and consideration at the time of ensuing contingent transfers.

(3) Pending applications shall remain valid till and considered in the date of next general transfers. Thereafter, fresh applications shall be submitted.

20. Procedure for filling of critical posts.- (1) Special care shall be taken by the Apex, State and Circle Authorities for filling notified critical posts on priority basis in general transfers. Applicants for such posts shall be critically examined and given the posting only if found suitable.

(2) The Apex Authority shall take up a special drive to fill up critical posts that remain vacant in any cadre after the counseling for general transfers is over and get them filled within a month. Names of suitable candidates other than those considered during the preceding general transfers shall be collected tacitly, at least three candidates shall be called for counseling and the best and most suitable forest officer or other official as the case may be shall be selected for posting to the critical posts. Posting orders shall be issued by the Chairperson of the respective Competent Authority.

CHAPTER IV

21. Contingent transfers and postings.- (1) Transfers or postings contingent on certain event(s) (e.g. recruitment, promotion, retirements etc.) other than completion of prescribed tenure shall be reckoned as contingent transfers and postings.

(2) Contingent transfers and posting shall be taken up once in every quarter. Those overlapping with the general transfer schedule shall be clubbed with general transfers but a separate account shall be maintained.

(3) Contingent transfers and postings shall include only need based and unavoidable ones. Hence there is no upper or lower limit to their number.

22. Eligibility for contingent transfers and postings.- The following categories of forest officers and other officials are eligible to seek contingent transfers and postings,-

- (i) direct recruits of the department who have completed their induction training;
- (ii) those who have been appointed on compassionate grounds;
- (iii) those who have been promoted on officiating basis to the next higher cadre;
- (iv) those who have been ordered to be transferred by the Karnataka Administrative tribunal or High Court of Karnataka;
- (v) those who are going on deputation or being repatriated;
- (vi) those who are on compulsory waiting for posting;
- (vii) those who are willing to work in newly created posts;
- (viii) those who are demoted to lower cadre as a consequence of disciplinary action for acts of commission and omission;
- (ix) those who were placed under suspension and need to be reinstated;
- (x) those who are grievously injured and not fit for discharging duty;
- (xi) those who have recovered from sickness or disability and ready to work;
- (xii) those who are listed under sub-section (2) of section 6 of the Act;
- (xiii) those who are willing to work in critical posts which have fallen vacant due to promotion, demotion, resignation, removal, dismissal, retirement, death, disability, sick leave or due to any other reason etc;

- (xiv) those who are seeking cadre change as per the C & Rules;
- (xv) those working in Category 'A' posts and are required to make way for others;

23. Procedure for contingent transfers and postings.- (1) General procedure prescribed for counseling, transfers and postings in Chapter-II shall apply mutatis mutandis to contingent transfers or postings also.

(2) As far as possible, contingent transfers shall be taken up for all the cadres together. Only after one cycle is completed, the next cycle can be initiated. One cycle means the time taken from the date of issuing the notification till the officers or officials newly transferred or posted take charge of their new posts.

(3) Counseling for contingent transfers and postings shall be initiated and completed by the appropriate Competent Authority relevant for each cadre of officers or officials. Venue shall be decided by the Competent Authority.

(4) In exceptional and justifiable cases, an officer or official may be given a contingent transfer within the same category of posts. Total tenure in both the posts together shall not exceed the normal tenure prescribed in Appendix – I.

(5) Contingent transfers and posting shall be done against existing vacancies first. If more vacancies are required to be created in category A posts, it may be done by reducing the minimal tenure of the present incumbents.

24. Taking charge of the new post.- Any officer or official who has been transferred shall handover the charge of the present post within one week from the date of the order as per the directions of the controlling officer and get relieved immediately. Similarly anyone posted to a new post shall take charge of that post within one week after handing over the charge of the present post excluding the joining time. Non-compliance with these time lines shall be deemed to be disobedience to the lawful orders of the Competent Authority.

25. Powers of the Apex Authority.- The Apex Authority shall be responsible for the following:

- (1) Appointing members to the Circle and Divisional Authorities in time;
- (2) Issuing clarifications and guidelines for implementing the Act and the Rules;
- (3) Getting the website designed and ensuring its up-to-date maintenance;
- (4) Standardizing the templates for transfer applications, notifications, orders etc., to be used under the Act and Rules by all the Competent Authorities;
- (5) Determining the scale of annual transfers, distributing the same among various competent authorities and notifying the schedule for general transfers;
- (6) Counseling and posting of Group A and B officers to suitable posts;
- (7) Approving the list of critical posts from time to time and taking up special drive after the general transfers to fill the unfilled critical posts;
- (8) Monitor the transfers and postings by various Competent Authorities and ensure compliance with the provisions in the Act and Rules; and
- (9) Submit reports to state Government from time to time.

26. Miscellaneous provisions.- (1) Inter-departmental deputations shall not be done after the age at fifty five years.

(2) In charge arrangements made under rule 32 of KCSR within the unit of seniority shall not be considered as transfer and posting within the meaning of the Act and these Rules.
